THE SCHOLARSHIP

The MAV is again offering the opportunity for a Councillor to attend the highly acclaimed Cranlana Colloquium. The MAV is providing a scholarship for a Councillor to attend the Cranlana Colloquium in September 2010. The scholarship is for a current Victorian Councillor. The scholarship is subject to an application process coordinated by the MAV and is valued at $5,000. The Colloquium will be held from Sunday 12 to Friday 17 September.

THE COLLOQUIUM

The Colloquium is the central activity of The Cranlana Programme, a non-partisan, not-for-profit organisation supported by the Myer Foundation. The Colloquium is a week-long seminar offered to groups of approximately 20 participants, drawn from the public, private and not-for-profit sectors. The Colloquium enables participants to define and understand the principles that lie at the heart of leadership and decision making. Participants leave better able to think through issues, to integrate new and different perspectives and to communicate with and motivate people.

Successful applicants will need to attend each day of the Colloquium and be available each evening. Approximately 10 hours of preparatory reading is also required. Participants will need to arrange their own accommodation, the sessions are held in Toorak. You can visit the Cranlana Website at www.cranlana.org.au

HOW TO APPLY

Applicants are required to submit a current resumé and a written proposal of not more than 500 words that address the following:

- What you think you will gain from the Colloquium and how you will apply it in the wider context of your work and life: and
- Your philosophy and approach to leadership and how it has been shaped by your experiences in local government.

Applications may be mailed or emailed to Andrew Rowe by Friday 23 July 2010. The successful applicant will be notified by telephone and announced in the MAV Bulletin.
