Council of Mayors (SEQ)
The growing importance of regional co-operation and collaboration

31 May 2018
Council of Mayors
(South East Queensland)
Australia’s largest regional advocacy body
“The whole is greater than the sum of its parts”

Aristotle
Regional Collaboration

Delivering projects of regional significance

Using collective influence to advocate as a region

Working together to promote our region

Thought leadership and bold ideas
Power of One Region

As a group:
Total operating revenue
FY17 $6.3 billion

ASX200 Companies

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Company</th>
<th>Revenue</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Westpac Banking Corporation</td>
<td>$6.3 billion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Automotive Holdings Group Limited</td>
<td>$6.1 billion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>JB Hi-Fi Limited</td>
<td>$5.6 billion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited</td>
<td>$5.4 billion</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Case Study:
The introduction of autonomous transport in South East Queensland
Collaboration isn’t always easy
Lessons in overcoming challenges to regional collaboration Questions?

Scott Smith
Chief Executive Officer
scott.smith@seqmayors.qld.gov.au