How the scheme operates

- Low income earners who live in the municipality holding
 - Pension concession card
 - Health care card
 - Low income health care card
 - Commonwealth seniors health card
- Council records details of pet owner on the voucher
- The owner presents the voucher to the veterinary practitioner at the time of admission for desexing and pays the remaining fee direct to the veterinary practitioner after a discount of 25% by the veterinary practitioner
- The veterinary practitioner takes the voucher, signs it, and bills the council for the prescribed fee.
- The vouchers carry an expiry date of one month from the date of issue by the council.
