Increasing participation in public life
In Kampala, 80% of girls do not feel safe.
Only 3.3% of girls reported always feeling safe when using public transportation in Delhi.
In Cairo, 32% of girls felt that they never could talk to anyone about their safety concerns.
In Hanoi, 39% of girls stated that they never or seldom felt safe when travelling by bus.
One in three Australian girls and young women told us they actively avoid public spaces after dark.

Hey there!
The streets of Sydney are our domain. Here, we should feel welcome, valued, safe and included. But do you really feel like you have a say in your own city? This is your chance. The people who make decisions about our city will see your stories, your experiences and your ideas for change.

Where in Sydney do you feel safe, happy and like you belong? What about places you feel unsafe, or where you get harassed or made to feel uneasy or excluded? Tell us about it.

Because all of us should feel Free To Be in Sydney

Content warning: The stories shared here anonymous, but visible on the map. Some include descriptions of events that people might find distressing. This map doesn’t replace other reporting mechanisms. If you are in danger or something serious has happened you should contact the police or contact 1800 RESPECT for support.

Click “Add a Spot” to add your story. You can add as many as you like. Start at our Sydney city map, or jump to a hub near you:

WE STAND WITH GIRLS TO END STREET HARASSMENT BECAUSE... we want to shape a better world.

WE STAND WITH GIRLS TO END STREET HARASSMENT BECAUSE...
WE WANT CITIES TO BE SAFE FOR ALL.

I STAND WITH GIRLS TO END STREET HARASSMENT BECAUSE...
I AM A GIRL.

I STAND WITH GIRLS TO END STREET HARASSMENT BECAUSE...
I CARE.

I STAND WITH GIRLS TO END STREET HARASSMENT BECAUSE...
GIRLS DESERVE EVERY OPPORTUNITY TO THRIVE!

I STAND WITH GIRLS TO END STREET HARASSMENT BECAUSE...
I’VE BEEN THERE!
“I don’t want a perfect city. I don’t want birds or the smell of bread in the streets. All I want is for them to treat you normally, like a human being, and that’s all.”
