

What motivated you to run for council?

What tactics did you employ in campaigning for the election?

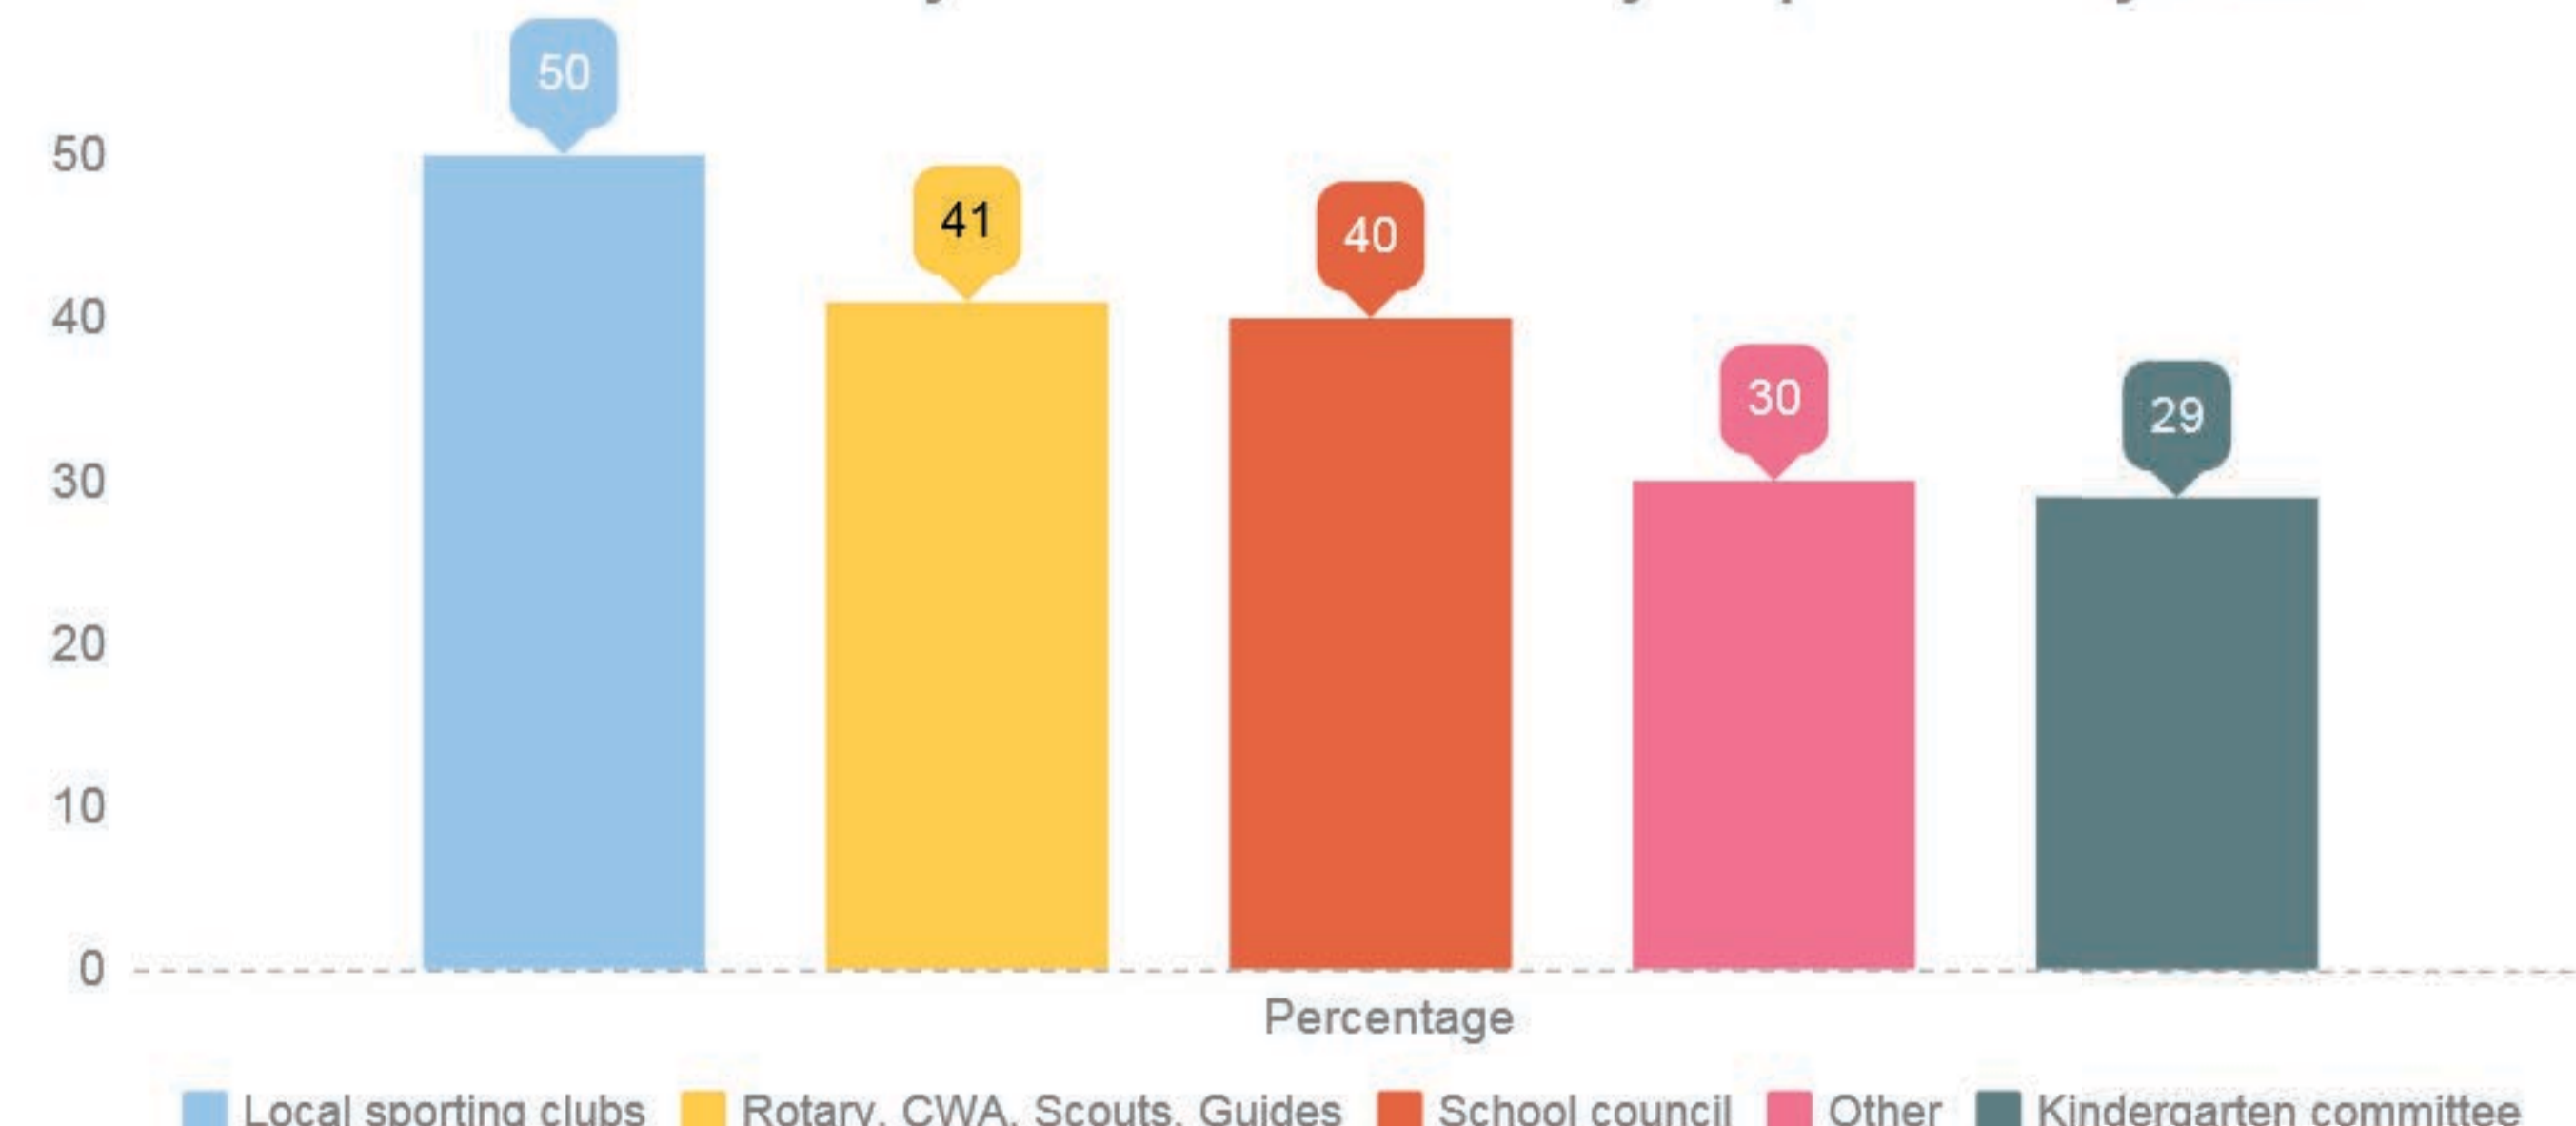

How did you find out about standing for council?

In reality the following expectations were much higher than I had anticipated before being elected:

What community involvement had you previously had?

What was your previous political experience?

