

Australian Institute for Disaster Resilience

Melissa Matthews
Information and Knowledge Management

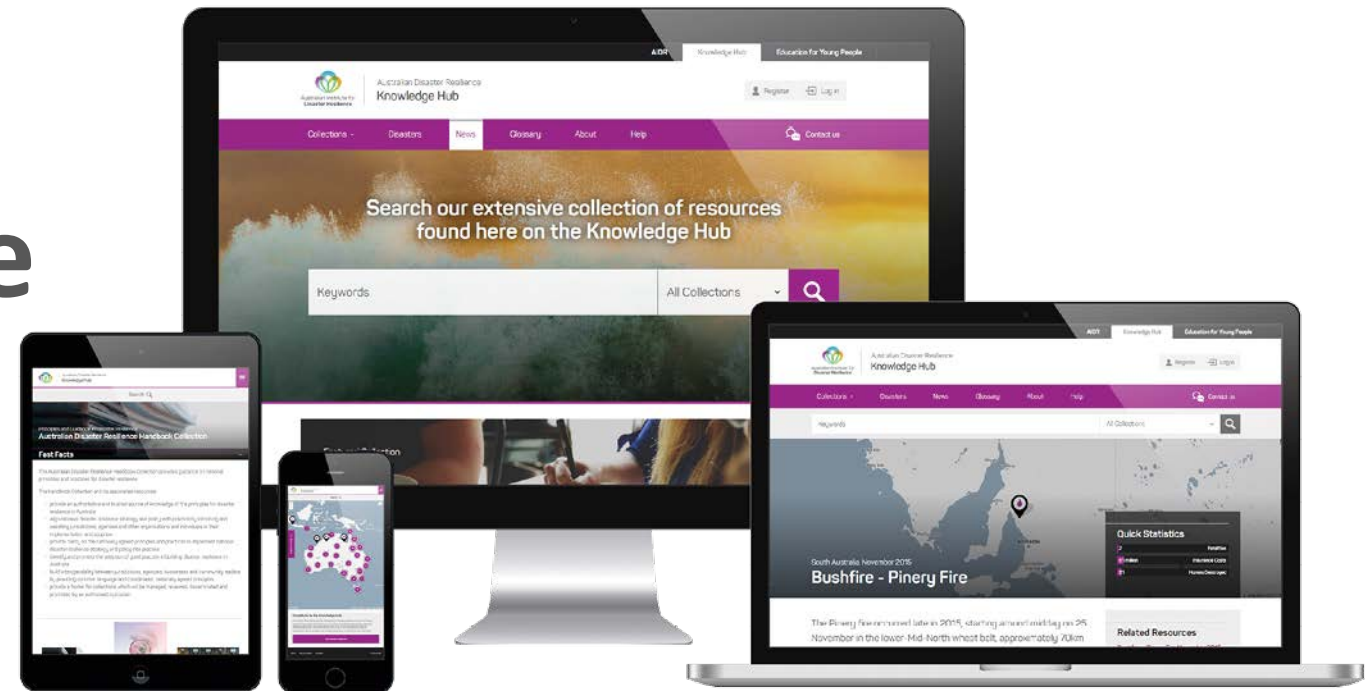

Knowledge is power

Knowledge enables people and organisations to make informed decisions based on their context and what they value

Australian Disaster Resilience Knowledge Hub

knowledge.aidr.org.au

Handbook Collection

knowledge.aidr.org.au/handbooks

Australian Emergency Management Arrangements

Communicating with People with a Disability

Communities Responding to Disasters: Planning for Spontaneous Volunteers

Community Recovery

Disaster Health

Evacuation Planning

Incident Management in Australia

Lessons Management

Managing Exercises

Managing the Floodplain

National Emergency Risk Assessment Guidelines (NERAG)

National Strategy for Disaster Resilience: Community Engagement Framework

Planning Safer Communities: Land Use Planning for Natural Hazards

Public Information and Warnings

Safe and Healthy Crowded Places

Tsunami Emergency Planning in Australia

Australian Journal of Emergency Management knowledge.aidr.org.au/ajem

Australian Institute for Disaster Resilience

Professional Development Programs

knowledge.aidr.org.au/collections/education-professional-development-resources/

Volunteer Leadership Program

Planning for Spontaneous Volunteer Clinics

Emergency Management Volunteer Scholarships

Lessons Management Forum

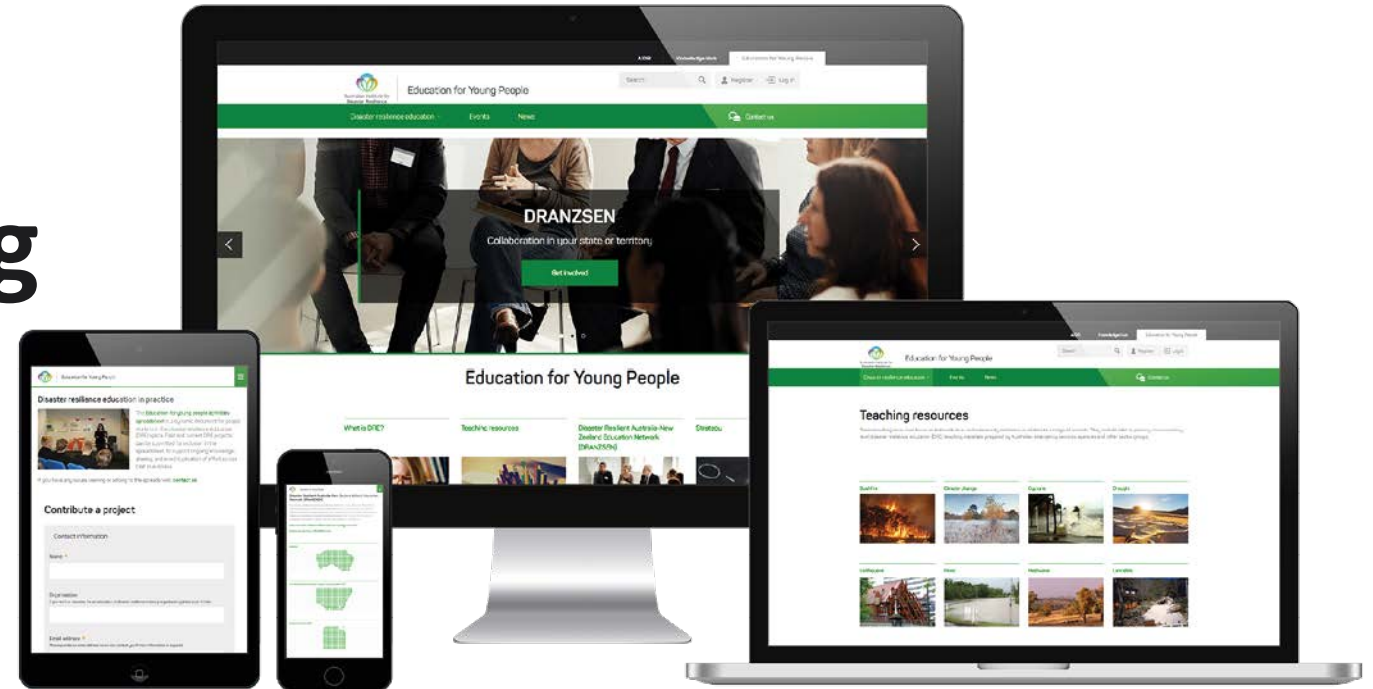

Australian Disaster Resilience Conference

Decision Making Under Pressure

Education for Young People Program

schools.aidr.org.au

Australian Institute for Disaster Resilience

aidr.org.au | knowledge.aidr.org.au | schools.aidr.org.au

@AIDRnews

@AIDR_news