March 25

8.30AM REGISTRATION AND COFFEE

9AM WELCOME FROM MAV PRESIDENT AND VICTORIA WALKS CHAIR

9.15AM EMPOWERING COMMUNITIES TO REVITALISE THE STREET

• Jason Roberts, The Better Block, betterblock.org (USA)

Jason Roberts is an inspiring speaker and co-founder of the Better Block movement, which has exploded across North America. The Better Block project is a demonstration tool that acts as a living charrette so that communities can actively engage in the buildout process and provide feedback in real time.

• Sara Stace, Executive Director, Link.Place.Live

A consultant specialising in active travel, urban design and policy, Sara is also a key player in the community driven Park to Pacific project, revitalising Clovelly Road in eastern Sydney.

10.25AM 'THE BUILT ENVIRONMENT – A CRITICAL HEALTH ISSUE,' DIANA HEGGIE, CEO, HEART FOUNDATION OF VICTORIA

As CEO of the Heart Foundation Victoria, Diana has over 30 years experience working in the community sector. She has a keen interest in the creation of environments which support health and wellbeing, an area of work in which the Heart Foundation has been a leader for more than a decade.

10.55AM MORNING TEA

11.20AM 'DESIGNING URBAN VILLAGES – TOWN AND COUNTRY,' JAMES LUNDAY, PRINCIPAL, COMMON GROUND STUDIO (NZ)

James Lunday has been a leading urban designer in Australia, New Zealand and internationally for 35 years. He is the recipient of awards in architecture, planning, landscape and economic development and has recently won design competitions in China and Kuwait. He is currently immersed in the rebuilding after the Christchurch earthquakes. The advent of personal transport reshaped our cities, but market forces have seen a return to the idea of community. People who can afford to are escaping to "Global Villages", Surrey Hills, South Yarra, Soho, Islington, Ponsonby. James' presentation will outline rural and urban projects that are attempting to reproduce the walkable communities that existed before the car and critically look at the role of the private sector in delivering the new Global village.

12.05PM PLANNING FOR MELBOURNE: WHAT NOW?, ROZ HANSEN, ROZ HANSEN CONSULTING AND ADJUNCT PROFESSOR DEAKIN UNIVERSITY

An urban and regional planner with more than 30 years experience working in Australia and the Asia Pacific Region, Roz was previously Managing Director of Hansen Partnership and Chair of the Victorian Metropolitan Planning Strategy Ministerial Advisory Committee.

12.45PM LUNCH (INCLUDING OPTIONAL SHORT WALK)

1.35PM PARALLEL SESSIONS: ATTENDEES TO CHOOSE WHICH STREAM THEY WILL ATTEND

Working with developers in growth areas',

Building walkable, liveable places from the ground up is particularly challenging – how can we do it in practice?

• Mike Day, Director, Roberts Day

Mike will explore how greenfield development can be designed to stand the test of time, using real world examples from Perth and Melbourne.

• Sue Wiblin, National Manager – Community Engagement and David Sleet, Development Manager Retail and Major Projects, the GPT Group

Building a walkable town centre out of nothing – is it possible? Yes. Sue and David will tell the story of Rouse Hill, a walkable town centre in the growth areas of northern Sydney, from a developer's perspective.

• Panel discussion

Regional transport planning:

Regional towns face their own challenges – how do we get people active when it is so easy to drive?

• Trevor Budge, City of Greater Bendigo Strategy Manager: Travel motivators in regional cities.

Bendigo's Active Living Census drew an amazing 17,500 responses. What does it tell us about the aspirations of residents and how to build liveable regional cities?

• Active travel planning in the regions – Jodie Fincham, Recreation and Events Coordinator, Colac-Otway Shire Council and Jonathan Daly, Founding Director, Huss

The development and delivery of an active transport strategy for the Colac Otway Shire, from two different perspectives. Jonathan will discuss the environmental psychology based framework behind the strategy, and Jodie will talk about the successes and challenges of delivering for walking and cycling in Regional Victoria.

2.25PM 'CONNECTIVITY AND PRODUCTIVITY: WALKING TO ECONOMIC COMPETITIVENESS'

- 'Rethinking success in regional and suburban centres,' Knowles Tivendale, Principal, Phillip Boyle & Associates
Drawing on a range of largely unpublished research over the last decade, Knowles will look at how people travel to suburban and regional activity centres, how that compares to retailers' perceptions, and what it means for building economically successful places.
- 'Walkability in the knowledge economy,' Terry Rawnsley, Partner, SGS Economics and Planning
Quantifying the benefits of walk connectivity and agglomeration economies is an emerging area. Using available data for the City of Melbourne and methodologies previously used to assess road and rail projects, estimates of the impact of walk connectivity and its economic value have been made.

3.15PM 'EMERGING ISSUES IN THE WORLD OF WALKABILITY', BEN ROSSITER, EXECUTIVE OFFICER, VICTORIA WALKS

A longstanding campaigner for streets for people, Ben led the establishment of Victoria Walks and is a regular speaker at conferences on liveable communities. Ben will review recent research and the trends of 2014, before looking at the challenges and opportunities of the year ahead.

3.40PM AFTERNOON TEA

4.05PM PARALLEL SESSIONS: ATTENDEES TO CHOOSE WHICH STREAM THEY WILL ATTEND

Local Government case studies: Practical examples of how to build smarter urban futures

- Mark Griffin, Manager Engineering Services City of Marion (SA): 'Walking and Cycling - Strategy to Implementation.'
The City of Marion has developed its strategies and plans and has now commenced the implementation of a number of key walking initiatives. These implementations not only enhance walking but the local environment and amenity.
- Peter Duffy, Senior Transport Planner, Sunshine Coast Regional Council: Sunshine Coast Active Transport Strategy
How to ensure planning for active transport is current, consistent and coordinated.
- Michael Oke, Environmental Coordinator, City of Yarra: Yarra Council's sustainability program
In August 2014, Yarra Council's world-class sustainability program saw it become the first Australian local government to achieve national certification against the One Planet Council standard and only the third Council in the world to do so.

9.05AM SHARED SPACE: A RETURN TO SOCIAL STREET DESIGN', BEN HAMILTON-BAILLIE, HAMILTON-BAILLIE ASSOCIATES (UK). (REMOTE PRESENTATION)

Described as 'the pre-eminent shared space guru in the world', Ben is an architect, urban designer and movement specialist based in Bristol, England. His work on shared space and the factors that promote civility has helped transform established assumptions and practice in the UK surrounding traffic engineering, speed and safety. Ben will speak to his presentation remotely and be available for questions via audio link.

9.40AM 'MAKING THE TRAFFIC MODEL YOUR SLAVE, NOT YOUR MASTER', STEVEN BURGESS, PRINCIPAL CONSULTANT, MRCAGNEY

Steven is an experienced traffic engineer and former manager of transport and planning at City Design (Brisbane City Council). He is the principal author of 'Complete Streets - Guidelines to Urban Street Design' and a popular speaker at Australian and international conferences.

10.10AM PANEL DISCUSSION – DESIGNING STREETS FOR PEOPLE

James Lunday, Steven Burgess, Nigel Smith

11.05AM PARALLEL SESSIONS: ATTENDEES TO CHOOSE WHICH STREAM THEY WILL ATTEND

'Age-friendly design to maintain mobility'

Building liveable communities to meet the challenges of an ageing population

- Kathleen Brasher, Manager Community Participation, COTA Victoria
'Older People Maintaining Mobility – why, where and how?'
- Jose Mantilla, Director, movendo
Walking is increasingly important for independent mobility as people get older. Jose will outline new research, funded by the TAC, on how to design streets to make it safer and easier for seniors to walk in their community.

'Pedestrians with impaired vision – into the mainstream'

- Marcus Blechmore, Government Relations Advisor, Vision Australia and Duane Burt, Walkable Communities Advisor, Victoria Walks
Marcus and Duane will demonstrate new tools to assess walkability for the increasing number of people who are blind or have low vision.

'Build it and they may not come - capturing latent demand for walking with infrastructure and behaviour change'

Infrastructure and behaviour change are usually addressed separately, but synergies emerge when they are brought together.

- Hywel Rowlands, Strategic Transport Planner, City of Boroondara
Hywel is an experienced international transport strategist and researcher, responsible for the Principal Pedestrian Network Demonstration project in Camberwell. He will outline the infrastructure and targeted behaviour change campaign that increased walking participation and reduced car use.

• Nigel Smith, Precinct Designer, Yarra Ranges Shire Council

Nigel currently leads capital works planning for the Yarra Ranges' 54 townships. The "Lilydale – Made for Walking" Project brought together research, design, delivery and promotion strategies resulting in significant increases in walking in Lilydale and a 150% increase in walking infrastructure investment.

Sarah Maddock, Place Facilitator, Adelaide City Council: 'Placemaking in Adelaide – Relationships, Roadblocks and Results'

Placemaking successes have been underpinned by the development of relationships, the building of trust and the energy of businesses, residents and property owners but haven't been without roadblocks.

12.20PM LUNCH (INCLUDING OPTIONAL SHORT WALK)

1.20PM PARALLEL SESSIONS: ATTENDEES TO CHOOSE WHICH ONE THEY WILL ATTEND
